Mark Chassay, MD, TCMS President Elect, will make appointments to Medical Society committees for 2010 later in the year. Below is a short description of some of the committees for which appointments will be made. Please mark any committees in which you have an interest. For additional information on a particular committee, call Belinda Clare at the Society office, 206-1250.

Travis County Medical Society Committees

[] Mediation — Mediates complaints from the general public against members of the Society in accordance with the principles of fair process.

[] Medical Legislation — Works in cooperation with the TMA Council on Legislation to promote the enactment of appropriate medical and health care legislation. Also works in cooperation with TEXPAC to evaluate political candidates' positions on medical or health care related issues.

[] Public Relations — Oversees and promotes community service and other activities that enhance public understanding and appreciation of the medical profession.

[] Physician Health and Rehabilitation — Assists physicians whose ability to practice medicine is impaired, or reasonably believed to be impaired, by drug or alcohol abuse or mental or physical illness. (It coordinates its activities with and abides by the guidelines issued by the TMA Committee on Physician Health and Rehabilitation.)

[] Constitution and Bylaws

[] Communications — Provides oversight of TCMS publications including editorial and advertising policy for the Journal, Pictorial Directory, Newsletter and Website.

[] Public Health — Works to foster communication and cooperation on current public health issues between the health department and practicing physicians.

[] Membership — Organizes, develops, and executes strategies for the recruitment and retention of members in the Society. Plan activities for the members of TCMS.
